Sikkim: As the State Archives has been recently started and is being organized, the resolution is still under consideration of the Government.

Resolution XIV: Resolved that the State Governments be requested to open Regional, or Divisional Archives in each Commissioner's Division, where the non-ephemeral records of all the Collectorates etc. in the Division may be collected and preserved under the overall control and supervision of the Director of the State Archives. This is absolutely essential for the purpose of not only preservation of papers, but also for promoting the writing of regional history.

Orissa: Steps will be taken to open Regional or Divisional Archives in the Sixth Five Year Plan.

Sikkim: As the State Archives has been recently started and is being organized the resolution is still under consideration of the Government.

Punjab: The Government has already sanctioned a scheme, "Setting up of a Regional Repository at Divisional Level", for establishing a Regional Repository at Jullundur. The repository will be opened as soon as the arrangements for building are made.

Resolution XV: Resolved that the Commission recommends to the authorities of the National Archives of India and of the State Archives to make available to bonafide research scholars residential accommodation at reasonable rates. Furthermore, it recommends for the consideration of the Ministry of Education at the Centre and in the States to put up hostels which will cater to the needs of such research scholars.

Jammu & Kashmir: The case is being processed by the Government.

Sikkim: As the State Archives has been recently started and is being organized, the resolution is still under consideration of the Government.

III. Resolutions of the 42nd Session, Panaji (Goa), 5th-7th January, 1973.

Resolution IV: The Commission recommends that suitable notice be taken by the Government of India and the State Governments, of the meritorious service of those who had carefully preserved private records, either by preserving those records themselves or by depositing them for safe custody in a properly organised Records Repository or a suitable learned Institution.

National Archives of India: The resolution was accepted by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs. National Archives of India has forwarded the names of those persons and institutions, recommended by State Governments, who have carefully preserved their private records for issuing necessary certificates in recognition of their services. The resolution is being processed with the Ministry of Education, Social Welfare and Culture to work out modus operandi for issuing such certificates.

Resolution VI: Resolved that keeping in view the urgency of salvaging and preserving the extremely valuable Government records lying in various offices in the District Headquarters and in the various field offices of the Central and State Governments, the Central and State Governments be strongly urged to open maximum number of Intermediate Record Centres on priority basis, within their respective areas, to collect, list and preserve these records. These Record Centres should be fully manned with qualified staff and equipped with repair and reprographic facilities. The facilities should be available, not only for the Government records but should also be extended to the libraries, learned institutions and individual scholars who have valuable private records, manuscripts etc. in their possession.
